CHRIST UNION CHURCH

The village of McKeansburg was the progressive center of a populous community during the first quarter of the nineteenth century. When Friedens Church, at the Little Schuylkill, contemplated the erection of a new building after 1820, the question of relocation was raised. The sentiment prevailed to build on the same site. A number of the members, residents of McKeansburg and vicinity, at once considered the possibility of the erection of their own house of worship. A subscription list was prepared in 1827. Balzar Bock donated the site. Application was made to the State Legislature for articles of incorporation and the charter was granted April 12, 1828. The cornerstone of the new building was laid May 25, 1828. The visiting ministers were Rev. Joseph K. Dubbs, Reformed pastor from Bern Twp., and Rev. John Knoske, Lutheran pastor from Kutztown. In the corner stone were placed, a copy of the Bible and the Lutheran and Reformed Catechisms. The receipts are recorded were: Subscription list, $962.55; Cornerstone Laying, $61.80; Dedication, $72.53; Loan from Bernard Kepner, $200.00. Total, $1296.88, which appears to be the first cost of the building. In 1831, another $200 was subscribed for plastering and other unfinished work. The first officers were: Building Committee, Ludwig Audenreid, George Metler, Andreas Bock, Wilhelm Koch; Elders, George Metler and William Koch; Deacons (Wardens), Jonathan Yost, Wilhelm Mayer, Andreas Bock, Bernard K. Kepner.

The pastoral records are either lost or were not kept. The earliest baptism recorded is in 1839 and the minister is not named. No records of communicants are available before 1860. The succession of pastorates is secured by examination of the archives in the Libraries of the Theological Seminaries. Pastors did not report for each congregation separately.

The Lutheran congregation was unfortunate in the unordained and unaffiliated pastors that served the people in the earlier days.

Dr. Weller speaks of them as "self-styled" preachers, who came from nowhere and disappeared as mysteriously. The congregation, however, purposed to be regular. The minutes of the Ministerium of 1831 have an item that the McKeansburg congregation highly recommends Candidate George Frey and requests the Ministerium to license him and appoint him as their pastor. The Ministerium did not deem him qualified and could not grant the request. In 1834 Elder William Koch represents the parish of four congregations as a delegate. Worthy of note is the period f.om 1872 to 1905—for these years only two pastors served the people, Revs. I. N. S. Erb and H. A. Weller, both pastorates extending over sixteen years.

The earliest reports for the Reformed congregation are confusion. Rev. Philip Mayer reports to Synod in 1818 that he preached for Yost and Friedens Church, and in 1821 his report mentions "Christ Kirche." Some authorities state that Yost referred to Christ Church, McKeansburg. There are no local records to indicate that preaching services were held at McKeansburg for either Lutheran or Reformed before the granting of the charter. As the biography of Rev. Mayer states that he preached at McKeansburg for three years, we list him as the first pastor but it is possible that Rev. Hassinger preached here in 1830. The number of young men who began their ministry in this charge is remarkable. At least five of them can say this was their first pastorate.

The present officers of Christ Union Church are: Elders, J. E. Greenawalt and N. J. Kunkel; Deacons, Harry Wertman, Howard Dennis, Milt S. Jones, L. Ray Fahringer; Trustee, J. P. Horn. Joint Council, President, Benj. Kunkel; Secretary Wm. B. Seltzer.

THE CHURCH SCHOOL

The early settlers desired an education for their children and straightway maintained day schools. The residents of McKeansburg were prominent in the movement to establish the free school system in Pennsylvania. The Sunday School as we are wont to designate the teaching service of the church, was organized at a comparatively late date. The earliest records are very meager and give little definite information. The first important date recorded is April 25, 1869. On this Sunday the constitution and by-laws were read. Twelve teachers were appointed. J. H. Pyle was Superintendent and J. K. Yost assistant. The attendance was ninety-eight. A little later in this same year Jonas Kunkel is acting superintendent and the number of scholars present numbers one hundred and thirteen. In 1872, C. B. Yost is superintendent and the attendance has dropped fifty per cent. Little interest is shown in the school at this time and in the hope of securing better attendance, on February 9th, 1873, when A. D. Yost was superintendent, the announcement was made that there would be German singing.

THE CHURCH SCHOOL (Continued)

From 1874 to 1878, the school seemed dormant or inactive. On May 12, 1878 a reorganization was effected with an attendance of seventy-four. Jonas Kunkel was superintendent and Wm. A. Jones, assistant. A little later in this year, David Bauscher was chosen to fill vacancies and was finally elected, January 1, 1879, to the office of superintendent. From this date Mr. Bauscher has served as officer and teacher until the present time—a faithful and worthy service, truly a veteran in service. During this long term of office, the several assistants were Jonas Kunkel, James A. Yost, Oscar Bolich, N. J. Kunkel, Norman Mimm, Harry C. Foltz.

THE ANNIVERSARY COMMITTEE

At the quarterly meeting in January 1926, Rev. Musser suggested the appropriateness of observing the anniversary of the granting the charter to Christ Union Church. A committee was appointed to report to the annual meeting plans and suggestions for improvements and anniversary. These plans were presented, acted upon and an anniversary committee chosen. The personnel of the committee is President, H. D. Hartman; Secretary, Walter E. Hartman; Treasurer, Benj. Kunkel; Mrs. W. H. Matten, Mrs. S. B. Nester, Mrs. Charles H. Koch, M. S. Jones, H. H. Dennis, Harry C. Foltz, J. P. Horn. The members of this committee have far exceeded the anticipations of anyone even beyond their own brightest dreams. The various organizations have stood with them in the work. Many friends have been generous in donations. They have labored in season and out, almost day and night. The members owe them a great debt thru this achievement.

Anniversary Committee

The works are here mentioned—the financial statement will be presented at a later date.

Steam heating plant, three memorial windows in each gable of auditorium, Sunday school room retouched and varnished, exterior of church painted, primary and committee rooms renovated and refurnished, a library book case built in the lower hall, all the woodwork including the pews repainted, walls and ceiling painted and decorated, new carpet and lighting fixtures in auditorium, painting of picture above the altar, a five piece pulpit set with brass cross and vases for the altar, pulpit platform rebuilt, steeple rebuilt and covered with copper sheeting, chairs for primary room and choir, new shingle roof over entire building, the old school property purchased, driveway piked and lighted with globes on concrete pillars, flower garden planted on lot between church and highway.

Let Somebody Else Do Some of the Talking

In one way it's hard for me to talk about Delco-Light and Frigidaire Products. I'm apt to get enthusiastic and serve up a lot of sound facts that seem too good to be true. So when I feel myself slipping, I say, "See so-and-so and so-and-so and so-and-so. Ask them how Delco-Light and Frigidaire Products save time, and work, and money, just like they claim in the ads." This way I have a lot of assistants that work without pay and I keep from being called a prevaricator. It's a good scheme and it works fine.

THE YOUNG PEOPLES' SOCIETY

For training and expression in religious life of our young people to be an excellent substitute for Sunday evening services, to give young and old the privilege of Christian fellowship, a Society was organized in July 1923 under the name of Young People's Society of Christ Union Church. The enrollment has increased from twenty-five to one hundred and ten. Meetings are held regularly throughout the year with interesting programs. Delegates are sent to conventions, institutes, and conferences. In dramatics, song, and socials the folks have been given training and enjoyment.

The society has contributed toward benevolent causes and the International C. E. work has shared in the expenses for heat and light, has secured special programs and other literature. The special gifts for the present anniversary are: Heating Plant, $250.00; Anniversary Fund, $250.00; Library Book Case, $143.00; Total, $643.00—a commendable work to be accomplished in less than five years. The records show a total of expenditures for all purposes to May 1, 1928, amounting to $921.73.

Officers of Young People's Society

Organized under the direction of Mrs. James B. Musser, this pastor's wife has continued guiding and laboring as superintendent from the very beginning of its history. There is much happiness in work for and fellowship with young people. In vision and faith, in fervor and love, in patience and kindness may the life and purposes of our young people be promoted to the upbuilding of character, to the progress of the church and the kingdom.

The present officers who serve for a period of six months, are: President, Irvin Kunkel; Vice President, Roy Smith; Secretary, Helen Frantz; Treasurer, H. D. Hartman; Pianist, Olive Jones; Assistant Pianist, Ethel Seltzer; Treasurer of Social Fund, Mrs. H. H. Dennis. Program Committee, Martha Seltzer, Edith Wagner, Howard Mimm, Irvin Kunkel, Emily Kriner.

THE CEMETERY COMMITTEE

Until the year 1919, the cemetery of Christ Church was governed and cared for by order of the joint church council. The fence was kept in repair and the grass cut twice a year by the sexton.

Through the years, markers fell, bushes grew up and the graves of those whose relatives had left the community, were neglected. Some lots were cared for regularly.

Occasionally litt'e groups of volunteer workers would gather to attend to these neglected portions. These workers often dreamed of and had a vision of a beauty spot where the remains of their loved ones and their own bodies might find a resting place cared for and ever green.

Several meetings were held in homes to plan for the perpetual care of the cemetery. Under the encouragement and counsel of Pastor Wm. A. Korn, a number of church members requested the church council to call a congregational meeting to consider plans, said meeting being held June 1, 1919. A petition to revise the by-laws was acted upon favorably. The endowment per lot was fixed at One Hundred Dollars. A committee to superintend the care of the cemetery and manage the fund was appointed, the committee consisting of Jonas Kunkel, Jonathan Horn, Mrs. Carrie Yost, Mrs. David Bauscher, Mrs. W. H. Matten, Mrs. S. B. Nester.

Lack of funds handicapped the committee but willing hands, and hearts were ready to help. During the summer, men and teams, women and children, gathered at different times to aid in the work. In this manner the ground was leveled, the hedge and trees planted. The ENDOWMENT FUND has steadily grown until the present time it approximates $10,000. This fund is in trust and the income only is used. This may seem a large sum to the unthinking but even today many things could not be done were it not for the time and labor given gratis by some of the members.

Since the committee has taken over the care of the church grounds, the lot north of the church has been purchased and beautified. The sheds, dilapidated and unsightly, have been removed. The old public school property opposite the church has been bought and will be remodelled into a social hall and store room. The driveway was improved by the committee. The concrete pillars, electrically lighted, were erected by it. Much credit for the beautifying of the grounds must be given to Pastor Musser who has given freely of his time and knowledge in planning and designing of the grounds. The church garden becomes more attractive each year.

The present members of the committee are H. D. Hartman, Pres.; Mrs. W. H. Matten, Secy.; Mrs. S. B. Nester, Treas.; N. J. Kunkel, Jonathan Horn, Elva Bauscher. With the help of interested friends, the committee can continue in the accomplishment of good works.

THE SEWING CIRCLE

A few faithful workers, plying the needle day and night, day after day, quilting, etc., have done a great work in their quiet way through all these years. What a record it would make if we could report all the quilts made, the spools of thread used, the stitches taken! Though not always appreciated nor most kindly spoken of, they have many friends to encourage and help. Patient in spirit, tender in heart, charitable at all times, they continue in their good works. For many years the ladies have regularly cleaned the church and always lend their support to every cause or project.

Three of the band of workers will rejoice in our joy as they look down upon us from the heavenly world, namely, Sara Kimmel, Carrie Yost, Emma Bauscher.

About three years ago the circle organized by adopting rules and electing officers. The present officers are: President, Mrs. W. H. Matten; Vice President, Mrs. J. E. Greenawalt; Sec. Mrs. S. B. Nester; Treas., Miss Emma Yost.
